Psychology and Neuroscience
Claire Hamilton Graduate Studies Conference Travel Award Application

Application Procedure: The application must be complete and submitted at least 45 days prior to the date of the conference. No award will be granted retroactively. The student, student's advisor, and DGS must sign the application. The application form must also be accompanied by a one page letter of intent with relevant details of the conference, and if you are presenting a paper or poster, a brief abstract of the paper or poster to be presented at the conference.

Eligibility: Any registered full time graduate student enrolled in the Clinical Program in Psychology and Neuroscience. Students are limited to one conference travel award per fiscal year (June 1-May 31). For summer conferences, students must have been registered for the previous spring semester. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE. Students who have completed their MAP should apply to the Graduate School.

Terms of the Award: The Department of Psychology and Neuroscience will provide up to $250 of the cost of registration fees, primary travel, lodging, and meals (up to $40 per day). The maximum to be paid by the department is $250.

Reimbursement: Save all original expense receipts including meals. When you return from your trip, submit a completed Travel Expense Form with receipts to Pamela Smith for signatures. This must be submitted no later than one month from the date of the conference.
